CALL TO WORSHIP

Mrs. Lou Ann Gillian

We have been summoned by God Most High to offer our sacrifice of worship.

Here I am, Lord.

God demands that we bring our best to this time of worship.

Here I am, Lord.

The altar of devotion is prepared; how will you respond?

Here I am, Lord.

CHILDREN'S TIME & BLESSING

Rev. Anita Thompson

People of God, what is your prayer for these children?

Our prayer is that they grow up to be like Jesus—strong and brave, full of grace and truth, and that we will help them.

PASTORAL PRAYER		Rev. Thompson
ASSURANCE OF FORGIVENESS	We have been made right with God because of our faith. Now we have peace with Him because of our Lord Jesus Christ. Through faith in Jesus we have received God's grace. In that grace we stand. We are full of joy because we expect to share in God's glory. And that's not all. We are full of joy even when we suffer. For we know that our suffering gives us the strength to go on. The strength to go on produces character. Character produces hope. And hope will never disappoint us. That's because God's love has been poured into our hearts. We are forgiven; thanks be to God.	Rev. Thompson

INVITATION

It is our tradition to offer a time of response near the end of worship. A response may take the shape of a profession of faith in Jesus Christ and desire to be baptized, a request for church membership, or the sharing of a prayer concern or praise which may be communicated with the congregation or safely kept between the sharer and minister. Please respond as you feel led during the Hymn of Response.

As the chimes strike three times—in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit—our corporate worship ends, and our opportunity begins to be the presence of Christ in the world, through the power of the Holy Spirit.
