Christian Women's Job Corps Angel Tree

There is one angel left! If you would like to help a Christian Women's Job Corps (CWJC) family celebrate Christmas, here's how:

- ♦Select an angel from the tree in the 1st floor hallway. Needs are listed on the back.
- ♦Sign the sheet next to the tree; include your name and angel number.
- ♦Keep your angel with your unwrapped gifts when you bring them to church. This helps identify each family's gifts.
- ♦Have gifts at church by Dec. 17. They will be given to the families at graduation on Dec. 18.

The Angel Tree is located in the 1st floor hallway. For more information, please contact Pat Byrd at 209-4301.

A Christmas Card Ministry

Into the ninth month of this pandemic, we lament the ways we have been separated from one another. We miss the Sunday and Wednesday exchanges . . . shared smiles, warm handshakes, much needed hugs, and meaningful face-to-face conversation. Therefore, during the Seasons of Advent and Christmas, let's make a concerted effort to reach out to one another by strategically sending Christmas cards to one another. Here's how it will work.

I have made a list of our older folks, those who are home bound, or are in a local nursing home. Another list contains our younger folks. I'm hoping many of you will agree to send a Christmas card to ten of our folks. If children are in your household, have them make a homemade card. Include a picture of yourself or of your family. Write a personal note to each person.

If you'd like to participate in this ministry, call or text me at (252) 395-0061, or email me at anita@fbcahoskie.org, and I'll give you the names and addresses of as many persons to whom you'd like to send Christmas cards. I'll also try to help you know those persons in a way that helps you personalize the cards you send.

The goal is to have all Christmas cards in homes by December 24. So, let's shower our brothers and sisters in Christ with Christmas love. And hopefully, by Easter, we'll be able to meet face-to-face to share those smiles, warm handshakes, and meaningful conversations!

Grace & peace,

2021 Church Budget

The 2021 church budget was approved by the congregation on November 29 during a called church conference.

Operation Christmas Child Shoeboxes

Thank you, church, for your participation in the annual Operation Christmas Child Shoebox ministry. And thank you, Melanie Byrum, for serving so well as our OCC Coordinator. Melanie received and packed up shoeboxes from all over our community. Then she and her husband, Lee, loaded them up and took them to a regional drop off area in Elizabeth City. Each box represents an opportunity for children all over the world to be introduced to the gospel of Jesus.
