Children's Ministry News

Wednesday Music & Missions Last Day

The last meeting of Children's Music & Missions for the 2020-2021 church year is April 28. We are thankful for the children, leaders, and parents, who persevered as we provided this ministry in the midst of a pandemic. Well done, everyone!

Children Leading in Worship on May 2

On Sunday, May 2, the grades 1-5 children will ring bells for both worship services. Parents, please let Rev. Thompson know if your child will be ringing for both worship services or one.

The age 3—kindergarten children will be signing the song, "We Believe," during the 11:00 worship service. Suzanne Newbern, this age group's leader, will provide further details.

Summer Church Camp 2021

We are planning to hold Summer Church Camp this summer and need parents and children's ministry volunteer's help in determining dates and other details. If you've not already completed the survey, you're invited to do so by copying and pasting the following link:

College Graduates

In a forthcoming edition of "The Window" we would like to honor our college students who graduated in December 2020, or will graduate in May 2021. This includes graduate students.

As is our custom, we would like to list the names of the graduates, their school, degree, and graduation date. Please contact Rev. Thompson by April 26 at anita@fbcahoskie.org to share this information.

High School Graduates

We are in the process of planning our baccalaureate for the high school class of 2021, and need information from seniors and their parents.

In a forthcoming edition of "The Window" we would like to list the names of the high school graduates, and their school, along with their senior picture. Please contact Rev. Thompson by May 1 at anita@fbcahoskie.org to share this information.
