Radio Station Broadcast Update

Recently, we learned that our Sunday morning worship service will no longer air on radio station 99.3, The Bull. We are pleased to share that our worship services will now air on 98.3, The Earl WDLZ, each Sunday at 9 AM on a one-week delay. For example, the January 23, 2022 worship service will air on January 30, 2022.

In Sympathy

We offer our sympathy to Susan Earley in the January 18, 2022 passing of her husband, Bill Earley. A memorial service will be planned at a later date.

We offer our sympathy to the family of Martha Dacus, who passed away on January 22, 2022. Martha and her late husband, Edwin, were longtime FBCA members until moving closer to their children.

A Message from our Pianist

To my church family:

It has been my great pleasure to serve as your church accompanist for these past 27 years, but the time has come for me to retire. My last Sunday will be April 17, 2022.

Thank you for all the love and support that you have given me over the years.

Celebrate Life—50th Anniversary

In 1972, the Christian folk musical, Celebrate Life, premiered at the Glorieta Baptist Conference Center in Glorieta, New Mexico. Shortly thereafter the musical was being presented by churches all across the country.

Since 2022 marks the 50th anniversary of the musical, we are planning to present it again at FBCA. Though a presentation date has not been pinned down, we're looking at possibly the 3rd or 4th weekend in May. In addition to the full presentation, we will sing some of the songs throughout Holy Week.

Rehearsals begin on Wednesday, February 9th, and Sunday, February 13th. The Wednesday rehearsals are from 7:00 PM to 7:30 PM, and the Sunday rehearsals are from 3:00 PM to 3:45 PM. Whether you've never sung Celebrate Life, or have sung it numerous times, you're invited to sing it at FBCA in recognition of its 50th anniversary. For more information, contact Rev. Thompson.
