Pastor Call Weekend

November 21-23

A Call Weekend will involve a Friday night dinner with the Pastor Search Committee and the candidate. On Saturday, there will likely be a luncheon for the congregation and the candidate at the church, followed by remarks from the candidate, and then a lengthy "meet and greet" where members of the church can talk with the candidate. On Sunday, the candidate will deliver the sermon, and a church conference will be held immediately thereafter to vote on whether or not to call the candidate.
