Eswatini Donations

The Barmers and FBC Washington have had a relationship with the people of Eswatini (formerly known as Swaziland), Africa, for 30 years now. Over those years, we've held tent revivals and medical clinics; led youth, women's, and church retreats; conducted pastor training events; made homestead visits; ministered to the sick and dying; led Bible studies and Sunday worship in stick-and-mud huts; and helped build a couple of cinder-block church buildings.

If you, your Sunday School class, mission group, or club would like to help in a tangible way, there are some supplies that may seem mundane to us but would be a vital blessing to these precious people.

Attached is a list of some things you could help supply. Of course, smaller and lighter items are better since I'll have to pack everything into my own luggage! I'm collecting donations through October 25th and can be
